

OVER 350 LESSONS FOR SOCIAL STUDIES

Historical Perspectives & Literacy is a 6-12 standards-aligned supplemental curriculum, built from the NCSS C3 framework and aligned to your state standards. This program supports inquiry-based instruction and emphasizes the use of primary sources.

HISTORICAL EXPLORATIONS	ETHNIC STUDIES	HISTORICAL LITERACY	GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES
Leverage cutting-edge media to gain a more complete understanding of historical events. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bring the world into the classroom with VR Analyze how location impacted historic events Compare, contrast, and evaluate events & figures 	Uncover stories of those underrepresented in traditional narratives for a more complete picture of history. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Analyze various accounts of the same events Demonstrate social awareness through empathy Expand their perception of history 	Teach students to analyze text, media, and primary sources. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Analyze sources Cite textual evidence Evaluate arguments Visualize continuity and change over time 	With resources from the Pulitzer Center, expose students to global events through a journalistic lens, while making connections to the past. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop students' global awareness Leverage high-quality media from reputable news sources Draw historical parallels

BENEFITS OF HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES & LITERACY

ALIGNED TO YOUR STANDARDS
Built from the NCSS C3 framework aligned to your state standards.

PRIMARY SOURCES
Enhance instruction with guided inquiry of primary and secondary sources.

SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL LEARNING
Encourage social and emotional development such as social awareness, decision making, and self-management.

LITERACY INFUSION
Prepare students to evaluate rigorous, informational text and historical sources through explicit literacy instruction.

Tap into Title I, Title IV and curriculum budgets to ensure high academic standards and prepare students for future success. Provide all students with digital learning experiences aimed at teaching students social studies and literacy skills.